This presentation was presented at the 2017 International Vasculitis Symposium.

The Vasculitis Foundation supports and empowers our community through education, awareness, and research.

Vasculitis Foundation
PO Box 28660
Kansas City, MO 64188
1.816.436.8211 or 1.800.277.9474

www.VasculitisFoundation.org

The Vasculitis Foundation supports and empowers our community through education, awareness, and research.

This presentation is the property of the Vasculitis Foundation. Do not reproduce without the permission of the Vasculitis Foundation.
The Future for Patients: What Lies Ahead?

Peter C Grayson, MD, MSc
Tenure Track Investigator
National Institutes of Health
January 16, 2017

Dr. P.A. Merkel
National Institutes of Health
Division of Rheumatology University of Pennsylvania Building 10 Room 13C101A Bethesda
MD 20892
United States

Dear Dr. Merkel,

is a peer-reviewed, open access, online journal which publishes research articles, reviews and guest edited thematic issues written by eminent experts in all areas of experimental and clinical research in rheumatology.

In view of your important contributions in the field, we would like to propose your name for the membership of the Editorial Advisory Board of __________________________. Please visit the journal’s website at or the journal's aims and scope. If you find these to be in line with your field of work and are interested in our proposal then please send us your updated C.V. together with your list of publications for approval.
The day of your diagnosis
What treatment do I need?
How do I keep this disease from coming back?
NIH Vasculitis Translational Research Program

- Patients with confirmed or suspected vasculitis
- Patients ages 5 or older
- Newly diagnosed or established disease
- Particular interest in:
  - Large vessel vasculitis
  - Families with more than one member with vasculitis
  - Treatment resistant disease
Peter Grayson
Peter.grayson@nih.gov

Elaine Novakovich
enovakovich@mail.nih.gov
301-451-1450